BUILDING A RADICAL WORKER LED MOVEMENT
Launched in 2014, the NY WCF brings together Street Vendor Project, NY Taxi Workers Alliance, El Centro del Inmigrante, NCE, Laundry Workers Center, DRUM, Cidadao Global, ROC NY, Retail Action Project, and Enlace to build leaders, strategic campaigns, and transform our movement for social justice. We grow the power and leadership of our city’s most essential workers, the backbones of our communities, so they are able to lead the movement for racial, economic and gender justice.

DELFINO LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE
The Delfino Leadership Institute creates leaders from the bottom up, building an immigrant worker movement led by workers themselves. With a strong analysis in criminalization and gender justice, participants develop their skills in campaigning, organizing, facilitation, and political education. To dismantle internal oppression, the curriculum includes healing and wellness. The Institute was named for a past participant, Delfino Velasquez, a day laborer who was killed on the job in Staten Island.

FREEDOM CITIES
#FreedomCities redefines safety, building on worker-led actions for workplace health and safety, and Night Out for Safety & Liberation. Workers are shifting the narrative on what safety and freedom truly means for our communities. We dream of a city where our entire community can live freely with safety and in their full dignity. Our communities can’t wait and neither can our freedom.

Enlace trains its Integrated Organizing Approach (IOA). The IOA combines internal capacity-building techniques with strategic campaign development and alliance mobilization to cultivate unique and effective campaigns.
